About Coinscrap Finance

Best Financial Health AI Platform 2023

Coinscrap Finance is a Fintech company created in 2016. We developed a Financial Health platform that uses AI to harness the power of transaction data. Following the principles of Behavioral Economics, we offer banks and insurers tools that help them understand the financial situation of their customers and allow them to offer hyper-personalized products and services. Our AI engine, known as COCO, which was born from collaboration with a research group from the University of Vigo, Spain.
